Special Display Considerations for this Piece? _____

Elegibility

Must have taken at least one class at IMA.

Work must be in good condition and ready to exhibit. This means safely rigged for hanging.

This is a non- juried show, but IMA reserves the right to refuse to exhibit any mosaic piece that is improperly or not rigged for hanging, unsafe, unfinished or otherwise no appropriate to show.

Students may show up to two pieces. Limited space for 3-d work, please contact Laurel@instituteofmosaicart.com to reserve space.

Permission to use Images

I grant Institute of Mosaic Art the right to use images of my work for promotional purposes, online gallery/exhibition, promotion of IMA Student Exhibition or future exhibitions at Institute of Mosaic Art. Full credit will always be given to artist and photographer.

Insurance

Artists are responsible for carrying their own insurance and are encouraged to secure their own insurance for displayed pieces. Every reasonable precaution will be taken in handling artwork, but no responsibility is assumed by the Institute of Mosaic Art and/or employees or volunteers for loss or damage to submitted artwork.

Drop Off: April 27 – 29, 2007 — Pick Up: July 31 – August 2
